A wide variety of water law and resource issues will be covered as the Idaho Water Users Association conducts its 34th Annual Water Law and Resource Issues Seminar November 9-10 at The Riverside Hotel in Boise, IWUA officials announced.

Seminar registration is now open. You can find information about registration, the seminar program and hotel accommodations on-line at www.iwua.org.

This year's seminar includes a broad scope of speakers and panels with topics including:

- "A New Administration & Western Water Issues," by L. Michael Bogert of Parsons Behle & Latimer;
- "Taking the Lead: An Idaho Pilot Project for Salmon Recovery," by Paul Kline of the Idaho Department of Fish & Game; and
- "Columbia River Treaty - Developing the Idaho Position," by John K. Simpson of Barker Rosholt & Simpson LLP and Will Hart of the Idaho Consumer Owner Utilities Association.

Another highlight of the two-day seminar is the session scheduled on Thursday, November 10: "SNOWMAGEDDON 2017!"

It is a full morning program discussing the 2016-17 winter. Topics will include:

- "How Big Was the 2016/2017 Winter Snowpack;"
- "Lessons Learned From Snowmageddon 2017;" and
- "Flooding & Your Facilities: What is the Law."

Also scheduled for this session is a special presentation from the California Department of Water Resources Security and Emergency Management Program discussing the Oroville Dam crisis.
